

Collaborations

STAKEHOLDERS	SERVICES PROVIDED
Farmers and farming groups	This centre is providing a lot of innovations in the farming system which increases enormously the household incomes of small holder farmers.
Universities, Training schools of Agriculture. (International and National)	Practical training ground for students of these institutions. Also, a relay organization for the collection of research information
Research Institutions	Research results are tested and scaled up to farmers and farming groups. Also, assists in the participatory research technology development.
Government technical Services	Exchange visits and trainings are organized for farmers at the MIFACIG Training and Resource Centre. MIFACIG is also invited by these ministries for decision making that upholds sustainable livelihood. With the support of the Government through the Resource Centre, the founder has been made the Regional President of the Farmers Platform of the North West Region of Cameroon.

National, International NGOs and projects	Support to MIFACIG Training and Resource Centre to bring farming innovations to the communities.
Community Development Associations and local councils	Receive assistance from MIFACIG Training and Resource Centre in the area of sustainable policy formulation and implementation for the municipalities.